MEMORANDUM FOR Incoming Soldiers of the 15th Military Police Brigade

SUBJECT: Brigade Command Team Welcome Letter

1. Congratulations on your assignment to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and welcome to the 15th Military Police (MP) Brigade (BDE). The Brigade currently consists of two FORSCOM MTOE MP Correction/Detention (C/D) battalions; six MP C/D companies, each with self-sustaining deployment capabilities; two TDA companies; one headquarters detachment; and approximately 130 Department of the Army Civilians operating the Military Correctional Complex (MCC). The MCC consists of two facilities - the United States Disciplinary Barracks (USDB), and the Midwest Joint Regional Correctional Facility (MWJRCF). The USDB remains the only Level III maximum security prison in the Department of Defense with a history dating back to 1874. The MWJRCF is a Level II medium security prison.
2. Many sources can assist you throughout the process of moving to Kansas as you join our elite organization. The foremost is your sponsor who can answer your questions and provide the insight you need to quickly and successfully integrate into your new home and assignment. Your chain of command and support agencies on post also stand by ready to assist you in your PCS move.
3. In accordance with your orders, all newly assigned Soldiers will report to the housing services office at 600 Thomas Ave, Fort Leavenworth, KS (phone number 913-684-3052) before making housing arrangements for renting, leasing, or purchasing any off-post housing. Unaccompanied and single Soldiers in the rank of E5 and below will not enter into a lease agreement without an approved certificate of nonavailability.
4. You will attend the Brigade Correctional Academy and receive extensive training for a variety of corrections-related responsibilities and Army doctrine. Your experience, training, and talents will make you an integral part of the Brigade team. Your contribution will enable the continued success of this organization and the United States Army.
5. If you have not been contacted by a sponsor, please contact the Brigade S1 for more assignment information at (913) 684-4821/4824.
